Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1 and 33-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 claims a second fluid, but fails to claim a first fluid. Clarification could be achieved by claiming a first fluid and a second fluid.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1 and 33-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Vigh or Weigl et al.

See the appropriate paragraph of the 7/28/05 Office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 10/12/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants' remarks concerning the 35 USC 112 first paragraph issues were convincing and these rejections have been vacated.

Applicants' state Vigh does not teach the sample stream and the sheath fluid having the same flow rate. Applicants' point out where Vigh teaches a differential resistance between the two fluids and concludes they must have different relative flow rates. The Office take the position that differences in resistance between the two fluids is just that – differences in resistance between the two fluids. These differences are not unequivocally related to the relative flow rates. Rather, column 8 lines 55+ teach only the amount of sheath fluid to match the amount of sample is required. The Office has read this teaching as a constant, equal amount of sheath fluid supplied to a constant, equal amount of sample.

Applicants' state Weigl does not teach the claimed sheathing of the two fluids. The Office does not agree and as pointed out by Applicants' Weigl teaches sheathing of the two fluids in column 44. Applicants' state even if Weigl does teach sheathing, the claimed equal flow rates of the first and second fluid are not taught. The Office does not agree because Weigl teaches in column 7 the two fluid streams may have equal flow rates. Applicants' point to column 44 of Weigl that teaches the two fluids could flow at different speeds. The Office takes the position Weigl teaches the two fluids can be at equal speeds (col. 7) or different speeds (col. 44) and has been properly read on the instant claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
